Attorney-General's Department (AGD)

With over 1,300 staff, the Attorney-General's Department (AGD) forms an important portfolio within the South Australian Government. AGD provides high-level legal services and advice to Ministers and agencies across the whole of government, specialist policy advice, regulation and compliance, and direct service delivery to the public.

The AGD's vision is one of an inclusive, safe and fair South Australia. The AGD strives to promote justice through protecting rights and holding people to account according to the law, improving safety, and contributing to an efficient and fair justice system.

The Attorney-General's Department is an equal opportunity employer committed to providing a working environment that embraces and values diversity and inclusion.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People and people with disability are strongly encouraged to apply.

We are committed to making reasonable adjustments to provide a positive, barrier-free recruitment process and supportive workplace. If you have any support or access requirements, we encourage you to advise us at the time of application via the contact below or our website <https://www.agd.sa.gov.au/>.

The South Australian public sector supports flexible ways of working including part-time working arrangements wherever reasonably possible. The sector is diverse and desires to increase in diversity and to create opportunities for more South Australians.

Consumer and Business Services (CBS) employs around 200 staff and our primary purpose is to facilitate business, protect consumers and record life events. CBS currently comprises eight branches, with two points of executive oversight.

CBS constitutes a large part of South Australia's business/consumer regulatory system, and is the regulator for many businesses and professions.

CBS' strategic goals are to:

- Deliver effective regulation – by ensuring fair markets, safe products and empowered consumers.
- Look after each other – fostering an engaging, positive and healthy work environment.
- Look after our customers – ensuring an informative, consistent and responsive service.
- Find better ways of working – through improved services and information.

For more information about the Attorney-General's Department and also Consumer and Business Services, please visit <https://www.agd.sa.gov.au/> and <https://www.cbs.sa.gov.au/>.

For additional role information please refer to the Job and Person Specification (attached).

Employment is dependent upon a National Police Certificate clearance that the AGD finds satisfactory. Successful applicants will be provided with further information if an interview is requested.

Job Application Guide

This guide is formulated to assist you when applying for roles with the Attorney-General's Department (AGD).

A job application is often the first contact the selection panel has of you. As the application informs the panels' decision to short list applicants for an interview, it is important to ensure that you adequately address your suitability for the role.

Your application must include a Curriculum Vitae (CV) and a Cover Letter.

Additional information/ documentation to support your application are not required beyond these documents, unless outlined in the job advertisement instructions.

The Cover Letter should be clear and concise (2 pages maximum). The name of the role, vacancy number and where it was advertised needs to be clearly stated. Discuss your employment background, reasons for applying for the role and why you believe you would be suited to the team/organisation (refer to tips for addressing your role suitability).

Curriculum Vitae (to include the following):

- Name, address, contact number and email address;
- Educational/qualification details;
- Employment history (including responsibilities and achievements);
- Relevant experiences;
- Three current referees (include their role title/address/contact number- one of which should be your current or immediate supervisor/manager).

NOTE: The Pre-Employment Declaration (provided on page 3) will only need to be completed if invited to attend an interview for the role.

Tips for addressing your role suitability

- It is vital that you demonstrate that you have the essential technical expertise outlined as required for the role and where possible that you have the desirable technical expertise;
- If one of the requirements is knowledge, it can be useful to demonstrate this by briefly discussing the topic and how your knowledge has been applied in your work.
- Whilst some areas may require greater explanation than others, be as succinct as possible;
- Use relevant examples of how these have been demonstrated in the past (and how they directly relate to the responsibilities/duties of the role);
- Your ability to meet several requirements can be demonstrated in one example.

NOTE: The Pre-Employment Declaration (provided below) will only need to be completed if invited to attend an interview for the role.

I declare that the information in this declaration and in any other documents completed by me and/or any other statement made by me in support of my application for employment in the South Australian public sector, and the information provided by me in connection with my application for employment in the South Australian public sector, including in any interview, is true and correct in every detail.

DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

I acknowledge that if I am employed in the public sector either in the role for which I have been offered or in any other role, I may, during the course of that employment, gain access to confidential information. Detailed provisions regarding disclosure of confidential information are contained in relevant public sector legislation, regulations, determinations, guidelines and industrial instruments. Without detracting from such sources, unless such information is clearly not of a confidential nature, and unless I am expressly advised to the contrary by someone with requisite authority, policy or as required by law all information I gain access to as a public sector employee is to be treated as confidential. The expression "confidential information" as used in this declaration means all information which must be treated as being of a confidential nature. I understand that I must not disclose or make use of that confidential information, during or after that employment, except in the proper course of my duties and/or with requisite authority and/or otherwise according to law. In particular, I undertake not to use any confidential information gained by virtue of any public sector employment, with the intent of securing a benefit for myself, any person, company or any future employer. In any case where I am in doubt as to whether information gained during employment in the South Australian public sector is confidential and/or how such information should be managed. I undertake to seek advice and instruction from a supervisor or manager.

POTENTIAL OR ACTUAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST

I undertake that if I am employed in the public sector either in the role for which I have been offered or in any other role, I will not engage in any external or private activities which will result in a conflict or potential conflict of interest with any of my duties as a public sector employee. I am aware that detailed provisions regarding conflict of interest and disclosure of conflict of interest are contained in relevant public sector legislation, and guidelines. Without detracting from such sources, in any case where there is possible doubt regarding a potential conflict of interest, I undertake to seek advice and instruction from a supervisor or manager.

EMPLOYMENT BASED ON PROVISION OF TRUE AND CORRECT INFORMATION

I understand that if I am offered employment in the public sector it has been made on the basis that the information that I have provided in connection with my application for employment is true and correct in every detail. I understand that any false statement made in connection with my application for employment in the South Australian public sector - which will include information withheld or incomplete - may lead to a rejection of my application for employment, or, in the event that I am employed or continue employment in the South Australian public sector, will amount to misconduct and render me liable to disciplinary action, including termination of employment.
