ORGANISATIONAL INFORMATION

OUR VISION AND FOCUS	ROLE CONTEXT
All children should have a good childhood, growing up feeling safe, nurtured and with hope for the future. Berry Street chooses to work with children, young people and families with the most challenging and complex needs. We work across metropolitan, regional and rural Victoria. To achieve our Vision, Berry Street delivers a wide variety of programs, from those aimed at strengthening families and communities through to those that focus on helping people recover from the trauma of violence, abuse and neglect. We also engage government, other community organisations and the general public in child-focussed advocacy and knowledge sharing.	Take Two is an intensive therapeutic service for infants, children and young people who have suffered trauma, neglect and disrupted attachment. It provides high quality therapeutic services for families, as well as contributing to the service system that provides care, support and protection for these children. Take Two is a Victoria-wide service funded by the Department of Health and Human Services, auspiced by Berry Street, and is also involved in partnership with other community service agencies to provide services to therapeutic foster care and residential care, Aboriginal therapeutic home-based care, and the Stronger Families program. Take Two is a flagship site of the Child Trauma Academy implementing the Model of Neurosequential Therapeutics to guide intervention planning. This role requires frequent travel within the region and occasional travel to Melbourne.
OUR VALUES	PRIMARY OBJECTIVES OF THE ROLE
Berry Street expects all staff to apply these Values in all aspects of their work. Courage: To be the best we can be and to never give up Integrity: Expect a personal and organisation commitment to honesty Respect: Acknowledge the importance of each person's heritage, traditions, identity, needs and aspirations Accountability: Be responsible for our own actions Working Together: Work with our clients, each other and our colleagues to share knowledge, ideas, resources and skills.	The primary objectives of the role are to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide assessments, treatment plans and therapeutic interventions with children, carers and families referred by Child Protection with a focus on family preservation and reunification. • Work across a range of interventions including brief work; individual, dyadic, and family therapy; care team and systems support and psycho-education. Therapeutic work can range from short to long term. • Work closely and collaboratively with the client and the care team to achieve and review the goals within the specified time frame.
	REPORTING RELATIONSHIPS
	This role is based at our Horsham or Hamilton office. It is part of the broader Take Two team. This role reports to the Clinical Team Leader who will provide supervision and review. This role will work in conjunction with other team members. This is a 0.8EFT fixed term until 30 June 2019.

EXPECTATIONS
All Berry Street staff are expected to meet the following expectations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conduct themselves in accordance with the Berry Street Code of Conduct which is underpinned by the values of accountability, courage, integrity, respect and working together. • Have a demonstrated understanding of and commitment to the principles of equity, diversity, continual improvement, risk management and occupational health and safety. • Berry Street supports White Ribbon, Australia's campaign to stop violence against women. There is an expectation that staff never commit, excuse or remain silent about violence against women. • Berry Street are committed to the safety, participation and empowerment of all children, including those with a disability and culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds. Berry Street are also committed to cultural safety, inclusion and empowerment of Aboriginal children, their families and communities.
KEY SELECTION CRITERIA: KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES REQUIRED TO FULFIL THE ROLE
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demonstrated ability to provide direct service in the clinical assessment and treatment of children, young people and families; and to comply with service delivery towards output and outcomes requirement (please refer to expectations under assessment and treatment). • An understanding of the complexity of the service system and the issues involved in providing services to statutory clients, with the ability to work in a complicated environment that can potentially challenge and frustrate individual values and viewpoints. • Demonstrated commitment to working collaboratively and the capacity to listen and consider other's opinions, respectfully and tactfully negotiate and liaise with DHHS, other agencies and the community. • Excellent written and oral communication skills including timely and accurate written reports and able to clearly articulate and engage with a range of audiences – children, families and caregivers, other professionals and the court system. • Demonstrated ability to flexibly manage competing priorities and stressful situations, monitoring own stress levels and practicing and promoting self-care strategies. • Sound decision making skills, reflected in good clinical judgements.

KEY ACCOUNTABILITIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

ACCOUNTABILITY	SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES
Assessments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conduct assessments to understand the impact of trauma, neglect, and abuse experiences on the child's development and functioning. • A non-standardised assessment approach is used and generally involves assessing the individual child, collecting a brief history and context such as care arrangements, living arrangements, school arrangements, resources. • Administer and interpret standardised outcome measures such as HoNosca, SDQ, Trauma System Check List (TSCC), Ages and Stages, Bitsea, NMT • At times specialised assessments are required and the clinician will consult with their team leader for discussion and approval in supervision to ensure clinical governance. • Where a child is known to be, or is possibly Aboriginal, consultation with the Aboriginal team needs to occur as part of the assessment process with this process being culturally informed. • Write a cohesive, succinct, timely report for multiple audiences –including the child, parents, carers, and Child Protection. • Develop a formulation which forms the basis for a therapeutic treatment plan that includes goals and time frames.
Treatment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide the therapeutic treatment as specified in the treatment plan. • The inclusion of a Cultural Connection Tool is essential for Aboriginal children. • Treatment can be at the levels of the individual child, the family system, and the care team system. • Key therapies provided are family or child psychotherapy (which is informed by principles of relational therapies), dyadic therapy between child and adult (to build and repair relationship) and psycho education for carers, early childhood/education services). • Develop and sustain therapeutic relationships with and between child and adults. • Identify and respond to clinical risk. • Conduct regular reviews of the therapeutic progress to recognise when the treatment goals have been met and the episode of care is completed and initiate case closure procedures. • Provision of secondary consultation and advice to non-clinical staff, carer and family members working in Care Teams. • Attend court and give evidence that may include their professional opinion based upon assessment reports and professional observations on the child/young person's development and relationships with significant others
Team Work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work cooperatively with the system that sits around the child – child protection practitioners, education providers, health providers, care givers and family. • Clinicians work in a team to ensure the work-place is a learning environment and are required to share and listen to others. • Participate in case presentations and other clinical development opportunities as these are learning opportunities to assist self and colleagues.

Administration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Complete assessment, review and closure reports in agreed time frames. • Maintain up to date files. • Update data bases as required and expected. • Keep timely and succinct case notes and file accordingly.
Self and Organisation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Participate actively in supervision. The Berry Street model of supervision encompasses management, support, development and mediation. It is not supervision to maintain professional standards. It is the forum to discuss clinical governance and risk and seek approvals and guidance as required. • Engage in workplace organisation training and initiatives of Take Two. • Engage in Communities of Practice and Friday Focus
