INTRODUCTION TO THE CITY OF HOBART

Hobart is Australia's southern-most capital and second oldest city in Australia. Resting on the shores of the River Derwent with kunanyi / Mount Wellington as a backdrop, the city boasts the most beautiful natural setting of any of the nation's capitals.

The City of Hobart has entered the twenty-first century with a renewed lease of life thanks to the boom in tourism that has recognised the cultural, historical and natural assets of the city.

Hobart is an easy and comfortable capital city to live in with a mix of heritage, 20th century and modern designed accommodation. Most suburbs are within a short car trip, bus journey or bike ride to the city centre and provide a mix of high and low density housing options.

There are a wide selection of private and public primary and secondary schools. Tasmania has a public college system where years 11 and 12 are offered at separate campuses to years 7 to 10 to allow the full breadth of subjects to be offered.

The University of Tasmania provides undergraduate and postgraduate education and has achieved global recognition for its marine, Antarctic and agricultural streams.

Frequent flights are available to other capital cities with Qantas, Jetstar, Virgin Australia and Tiger Air. Hobart Airport is just a 15 minute drive east of the city centre.

One major public hospital services the city and a number of private hospitals are in or close to the city centre.

ADVICE TO APPLICANTS

SELECTION PROCESS

City of Hobart positions are filled in accordance with suitability for the position, the relative merits of the candidates and relevant legislative requirements. Merit and suitability are assessed through a selection process that comprises the written application, the applicant's performance at interview, any assessment tools that are utilised and referee reports.

YOUR APPLICATION

Job applications need to be clear and concise as this is the first step in demonstrating your relevant knowledge, skills, qualifications and experience. All applications should address the essential and desirable requirements of the position (the selection criteria is sometimes referred to as required attributes).

To apply for a position with the City of Hobart you need to apply online and answer all the mandatory questions in the online application. Once you have filled out your details and answered all the questions, you are then prompted to upload a cover letter, your resume, and any additional supporting documents – these include copies of qualifications relevant to the position you are applying for.

Your application should provide information that demonstrates:

- your knowledge and skills against each of the selection criteria, citing relevant examples
- your experience and qualifications and/or ability to develop the skills required
- presentation

FORMAT FOR YOUR APPLICATION

COVERING LETTER

You must include a short covering letter that introduces yourself and details the reasons that you are applying for the position.

CURRENT RESUME/ CURRICULUM VITAE

A resume is a history of your employment and work experience and should cover:

- your employment history in reverse chronological order, starting with your current employment
- details of the positions that you have held, including employment dates, capacity in which you were employed (e.g. full-time, part-time, casual), where you were employed and brief outline of the main duties and responsibilities
- your educational qualifications.
This should include the title of your qualification, the year awarded and the title of the institution attended. Copies of your academic qualification should also be attached
- information regarding training courses or developmental programs that you have attended.

SELECTION CRITERIA

You must address the selection criteria in the questions in the online application.

The selection criteria represent the minimum level of knowledge and skills that individuals will need to satisfactorily perform the duties of the position. You must address each criterion in your application, citing relevant examples to demonstrate your ability or potential to meet the requirements. The selection criteria should also be addressed in terms of the major duties of the position for which you are applying.

Applications are rated against the selection criteria to short-list candidates for interview and then select the most suitable and meritorious applicant from the field of candidates interviewed.

In addressing the selection criteria you should consider the following guidelines:

- read the selection criteria carefully and identify the major factors in each selection criterion
- determine how you meet each criterion
- when making a statement on how you meet the criteria, cite relevant examples that detail how you were involved in a process, or how you applied a relevant skill or ability. In providing evidence to support your achievements, explain how you were successful
- check that you have addressed the major factors

- it is not sufficient to simply state that you meet the criteria without explaining how
- the suggested length of response should be approximately half-page per criterion
- as a general rule, the more senior the role, the more complex the selection criteria and the more detailed your response should be.

REFEREES

Details of at least two referees should be included with your resume. It is desirable for at least one referee to have been a supervisor or manager from your past employment.

YOU SHOULD:

- supply each referee's name, position, organisation, business address and contact telephone number/s
- contact your referees with the details of the position that you are applying for in the event they are contacted to provide a verbal report about your skills and abilities and suitability for the position for which you are applying.
