- 💡 Consistently model the Council's Values Charter and associated behaviours.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The Inverell Shire was formed in July 1979 following the amalgamation of the Macintyre and Ashford Shires and the Inverell Municipality. The Shire is situated in the New England area of New South Wales and comprises an area of approximately 9430 square kilometres, including the towns of Inverell and Ashford, and the villages of Delungra, Yetman, Gilgai, Tingha, Bonshaw and Graman. The Shire extends from Georges Creek in the south to the Queensland border in the North and from Swan Vale in the East to Koloona and near Coolatai in the West. The Shire has an overall population of approximately 17,500 and the major town, Inverell, has a population of 11,000.

Relevant details about the Inverell Shire Council include the following: -

- Total Annual Expenditure - $40 million
- Total Employees - 215

The Office of the Inverell Shire Council is located in Inverell, which is situated on the Gwydir Highway, approximately 65km west of Glen Innes in northern New South Wales. Inverell, known as the “Sapphire City”, is one of the world’s largest sapphire producing centres. The town is situated at an elevation of 590 metres, half way down the western slopes of the Great Dividing Range. The climate is dry with an average summer temperature of 28 degrees centigrade and an average of 18 degrees centigrade in winter. Winter mornings can be cold, but the days are mostly sunny and clear and there is very little wind influence.

The town of Inverell possesses an excellent shopping centre and the education facilities are of a very high standard. The town has very well developed sporting facilities that cater for a wide range of sports.

GUIDELINES FOR APPLICANTS

Thank you for expressing an interest in the advertised position with Inverell Shire Council. This organisation is an equal opportunity employer and as such, the following information is provided to ensure that all applicants clearly understand the requirements of the overall selection process.

Purpose of Position Profile

The Position Profile should be read carefully as it describes the requirements and duties of the position and forms the criteria for selection of the most meritorious applicant for the position.

Your Application

Applications can now be submitted online. Please visit the Council Employment Section at www.inverell.nsw.gov.au to complete your application.

Selection Criteria

Shortlisting for interviews is based on how well the information in your application meets the selection criteria. Therefore, it is most important that your application addresses each of the selection criteria stated in the advertisement. A full resume on its own is not sufficient. Applications, which do not address the necessary criteria, may not be considered further.

Merit is the sole basis of selection and wherever possible, you are encouraged to cite evidence of your merit; don't simply state that you meet the requirements but give specific examples, which demonstrate how you meet the requirements.

The Interview

Should you be successful in obtaining an interview, ensure that you plan and prepare adequately.

You will be asked a number of questions to determine how well you meet the selection criteria for the position. Consequently, it is important that you be able to demonstrate your qualifications and skills. Bring any documents, examples, etc. that you consider may assist in this process.

It is important for applicants who are not currently employed by Inverell Shire Council that documentary evidence of qualifications is provided.

Reference Checks

Reference checks may be conducted for any applicants who are short-listed for interview. This information will be obtained from your referees. These people will preferably be your current or most recent supervisor and contact details should be included in your resume. If you have any objection to this action, your concerns should be raised in your application so that the Selection Committee can make alternative arrangements.

For clarification of any part of these guidelines, please contact Council's Workforce Services Coordinator, Stephen Jones by phoning (02) 6728 8288.

THE POSITION

Remuneration

Salary will be in accordance with qualifications and experience, and will be in a range from $1116.30 to $ 1202.13 gross per week

Conditions

Employment will be in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Local Government (State) Award 2023 and Offer of Employment.

Hours of Work

Thirty-five hours per week, 8.30am – 4.30pm. However, the person will be required, from time to time, to work additional hours during periods of high workloads, to ensure deadlines are met.

Probationary Period

The appointment is subject to a probationary period of three (3) months.

Smoke Free Environment

Council provides a “smoke-free” work environment.

Education/ Training

Council encourages and supports employees to undertake appropriate training.

Medical

Council’s Recruitment and Selection Procedures include the completion of a medical examination. The medical examination includes a mandatory Drug Test. This examination is at Council’s expense, and you shall attend Council’s consultant doctor.

Applications

Applications close on Friday, 26th April 2024 at 4:30pm. Applications can now be submitted online. Please visit the Council Employment section at www.inverell.nsw.gov.au to complete your Application.

Interviews

Interviews for the position will be conducted on week commencing 29th April 2024.

Recruitment Process

It is Council’s aim to complete the recruitment process and notify candidates of an outcome within four (4) weeks of the closing date, however this timeframe may be extended due to unforeseen circumstances. As a guide, the expected timeframe for the recruitment process for this position is as follows: -

Closing date: Friday, 26th April 2024;
