The Inner West Council was formed on Thursday 12 May 2016 as a result of the amalgamation of Ashfield, Leichhardt & Marrickville Councils by the NSW State Government through the Local Government Proclamation 2016 (Council Amalgamations). The new Council has a population of 185,000 people and covers an area of 36 km².

The Inner West Council operates across the areas previously governed by the former Ashfield, Leichhardt and Marrickville Councils. All Inner West Council employees may be transferred to any of these areas to allow sustained productivity and opportunities for skills growth.

POSITION PURPOSE

The role and position of the Programming & Events Officer is key in ensuring the IWC Library & History Service is a pivotal information, recreation and education provider in the community. This role will assist the Programming team to deliver quality lifelong learning, literacy, cultural and recreation programs and services across the Council's eight libraries. In particular, the role will have a strong focus on the development and delivery of all programs and services, aimed at promoting literacy skills, developing readers, supporting education and lifelong learning, and providing valuable recreational and cultural opportunities for the inner west community. This also includes the development of spaces and places within the Library sites for the community to participate and engage with their community in accordance with the Library Service's desire to become a key third place within the IWC community.

You will ensure a responsive, efficient and high quality service to the Inner West Council community, including schools and community organisations and will work with the Programming & Event staff in the provision of quality programs and events. This position requires the ability to work with diverse teams, identify priorities, make clear decisions quickly, and operate in a variable and complex environment. You will participate in program concept development, policy development, the collection discussions in consultation with the Collections Management team, staff training in programs and events in consultation with the Training & Development Coordinator and liaison with Council staff, relevant community groups and professionals.

You will participate in cross-Library and Council teams in the areas of collection development, children's and youth services, events planning et al. – as required. Participate in the delivery of frontline services via the weekly roster, including night and weekend work.

This position will initially and be primarily based at Marrickville Library. Note that the position holder may be relocated to other library branches with sufficient notice from time to time.
